TEACHING EXPERIENCE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Curriculum Development:

- Pulmonary Critical Care Fellowship 2005- 2007

Louisiana State University School of Medicine
Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Post-Katrina, the Section of Pulmonary/Critical Care of LSUHSC in New Orleans required sites for fellow education due to loss of clinical activity in New Orleans. I facilitated a partnership with Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center to bring fellows to the intensive care units at this site for clinical exposure and education and served as the director of this rotation. We developed a curriculum which took advantage of the unique opportunities at this site, including neurosurgical and trauma critical care (activities which were not previously present within the LSUHSC fellowship).

- Critical Care Rotation for Fourth Year Medical Students 2007- present
Louisiana State University School of Medicine
Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center/Baton General Regional Medical Center
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

The lack of clinical rotations post-Katrina and interest expressed by medical students in critical care led to a need for the development of additional critical care rotations. Working with the office of student affairs, I designed rotations and developed curricula for students desiring critical care electives in Baton Rouge.

- Critical Concepts Rotation for Fourth Year Medical Students 2010- present
Louisiana State University School of Medicine
Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center/Baton General Regional Medical Center
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Critical Concepts is a required 4 week course for fourth year medical students from LSUHSC-NO. During one of the four weeks, students are required to rotate in an Intensive Care Unit. I am responsible for the coordination and education of these students which rotate in Baton Rouge.

- Acute Care Lecture Series 2013- present
Louisiana State University School of Medicine
Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center/Baton General Regional Medical Center
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

A lecture series provided annually to incoming interns and residents at OLOLRMC. This series focuses on acute care of the hospitalized patient.

Creation of Enduring Teaching Materials:

- On Call Pearls for Interns 2002- 2005
Louisiana State University School of Medicine
New Orleans, Louisiana

As part of the Special Topics lecture series given to fourth year students of LSUHSC, I have prepared a guide for the acute management of common problems encountered by interns in hospitalized patients. This guide has been available to all fourth year students in both electronic and hard copies for their reference

- Internal Medicine Review 2004
LSU Internal Medicine Residency Program
Baton Rouge, Louisiana

This study review has been available to students and house officers of all levels since 1992 and serves as both a handbook for internal medicine and study guide for standardized testing. I was responsible for the revision and updating of the pulmonary/critical care section (pp. 55-76) of this material to reflect recent changes in the literature and practices.
